PARAGON TECHNOLOGIES ANNOUNCES RESULTS OF 2007 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

L. Jack Bradt, Founder and Former Chairman and President and CEO Retires from the Board of Directors

EASTON, PA — August 2, 2007 -- Paragon Technologies, Inc. (Amex:PTG), a leading supplier of “smart” material handling systems and “software-driven” warehouse and distribution center solutions, announced the results of the vote taken at its Annual Meeting of Stockholders held in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania yesterday.

Ninety-three percent of all of the outstanding shares of Paragon Technologies, Inc. were voted at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders. As a result of the voting, all five Directors proposed by the Board of Directors were elected. Elected to the Board of Directors for a one-year term or until their successors have been elected and qualified were:

- Robert J. Blyskal
- Theodore W. Myers
- Anthony W. Schweiger
- Samuel L. Torrence
- Leonard S. Yurkovic

Also at the Annual Meeting, the stockholders did not approve the Company’s 2007 Equity Incentive Plan.

In other news, L. Jack Bradt, age 79, Founder, Former Chairman, President, and Chief Executive Officer retired from the Board of Directors yesterday. Len Yurkovic, Acting CEO of Paragon Technologies, Inc., commented, “Jack Bradt has devoted his entire career to the Company, and his vision and persistence created the foundation for the high respect that the Company now enjoys in the markets it serves. Words cannot adequately express our thanks and appreciation to Jack Bradt for his lifetime contribution. On behalf of the Board of Directors and employees of the Company, I would like to thank Jack for all that he has done for the Company.”
